“ I loved Doris right from the start, which was 37 years ago. I never had to wonder what she was thinking, because she'd tell me, which always made me laugh. She'd call in the mornings and say, "You got your beans on yet?" As a 21 year old, I thought that odd, but learned that's apparently what grownups do....wake up, and get your beans to cooking. She was wonderful. And she had a fierce love for her family, and for her grandchildren, who loved her the same way. The memories we have, we will cherish forever.
