“ I just want to say that Ms. Doris was more than just an employer, she was my friend. We became so close she even adopted me as a sister, which was a true honor. She loved her family deeply and was so very proud of each one of them. She would tell me how proud she was to have such a strong and loving husband, she admired him for his strength and all his accomplishments. We would stay up late just talking, telling each other stories of our lives, we would laugh together and sometimes we would cry together. She made my life more complete and I thank God for putting us together. She loved animals and especially her cat and her grandpup Lila. She's a unique lady and as long as I live she will be loved and remembered. God bless this wonderful woman that I had the pleasure of knowing and spending time with and the privilege of sharing our lives and love with each other. I'll always miss you my 'Ladybug', RIP now with our Lord.

Sincerely, Joyce.
