“ Ms. Edna was a favorite at Dixie Diner. Every time we saw her coming we would fix her "homemade" chocolate milk. She was such a pleasant person and would share stories of her youth. I loved to hear her sing with her wonderful irish accent and watching her dance on occasion. Hope God has his dancing shoes ready. Cheerio Ms. Edna!

“ Remembering sweet Ms. Edna coming to our Dixie Diner often for vegetable soup and chocolate milk. She danced with Brian, and made all of us smile. I loved her accent. She never said, "Goodbye" but "cheerio" instead. I was blessed to have known her. Dance on streets of gold, Enda. Cheerio!
