“ Harold,
Where could I even start, my momma worked for you for almost 30 years cleaning your house on Salem Valley Rd. I grew up getting to hang out there and swim and just be a kid too, some of the happiest times of my life, but you also taught us about work, I remember you handing us big black garbage bags and it was soooo hot outside lol you said fill that bag up with vegetables (picked from his garden) and I'll pay you, he gave us 50$ a piece! And then said "yall can go swimming now" lol you were one of the best people Harold, with loving memories, Stacey (carols daughter)
