“ Liz was always kind to me. We met back in the day when it was Chattanooga Cable TV. Later on I would see her at the bowling alley and she would always give me guidance. My condolences to the family. May she rest in the arms of Jesus.

“ I can't believe I'm writing an "in memory of you." We spent over a decade together side by side at the 311 Call Center. I have so many fun memories of us. Rest in forever peace Liz, you earned it.

“ I only met Cousin Liz once about 20 years ago. That was at a small reunion of the Sartain children of Mae Dean Sartain and A.O. Sartain. Excepting my mother, all that generation has passed. Liz's father was Samuel Dean (Jack) Sartain. My parents, H.R. (Buddy) Sartain and Rose Taylor Sartain, named me after Jack. I am Samuel Dean Sartain. I am sorry for Liz's family's loss.

“ We are so sorry to hear of the passing of our cousin Liz. We enjoyed the times we did get to spend together. So glad she got to make a beach trip with us. She was a pretty and sweet lady- and had plenty of fun stories to share. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family during this time. God Bless. Patricia Sartain O'Bryant, Paula Sartain, John Sartain, and Charlie's Sartain.

“ Liz was my step mom for more than 5 years. From all that I ever saw her and dad had a wonderful, caring, and loving relationship. I certainly enjoyed all of the time that I got to spend with Liz. I know that you are at home now with our Lord Jesus and our heavenly Father and other loved ones that went home prior to you. You will be greatly missed but I take peace, love, and joy in knowing that when my time here is done I will see you again. Love Lon
