“ What an awesome privilege to have known this precious Saint! She was a great example in our lives. She showed the true meaning of Christian hospitality and fellowship!! Her cooking was amazing but not just that her love for you as she served! Christ said to be like Him you must serve one another !! What a treasure that her family got to enjoy her with them for all these years! May God's peace be with you and His love surround you as you go through this time. Prayers for all!
