

Elizabeth Mae Lindauere

September 23, 1930 - January 18, 2025

Elizabeth Mae Hinkle Lindauere

Had a lifelong passion for her Savior, her husband, her family and music

Elizabeth (Betty) Mae Hinkle Lindauere, 94, of Ringgold, GA, after a short illness, drew her last breath on Saturday, January 18, 2025, and saw her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, face to face. She was born on September 23, 1930 in McKeesport, PA, where she earned her degree in music at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, PA and met the love of her life, Gene (Bud).

She was the 2nd of six children born to the late Jonathan Holmes and Mary Irma Poland Hinkle. Her late husband, Gene Woods Lindauere preceded her in death on September 3, 2024. They had been married for 72 years.

She is survived by sisters, Lee Watson (Fairview, NY) and Faye Breda (Toronto, Canada), as well as her 5 children, Dee (Russ) Grier (Rossville, GA), Randy (Sue) Lindauere (Myrtle Beach, SC), Denise (Brian) Jansen (Bluffton, SC), Dayna (Ed) Buswell (Denton, MD), Debbi (Mark) Hottel (Mt. Airy, MD); her 20 grandchildren, 37 great grandchildren and her 4 great, great grandchildren, many beloved nieces and nephews, including Cynthia Jo Nemeth (Carmel, IN) who was like a daughter from the age of 12.

Elizabeth and her husband were extremely hospitable. They invited missionaries to stay in their home and hosted many dinners and social events.

Betty played the piano and organ for nearly 80 years in many churches. She taught hundreds of children and adults how to play and love the piano. She taught English and music primarily at her church school for many years. She and her husband moved from Rockville, MD, to Ringgold, GA, in 1991 and were guiding hands in the founding of the L'Abri Symphony Orchestra in Dalton, GA, which is still in existence after 30+ years.

Truly her love for her Savior, family, and music were the touchstones of her life.

Betty was a breast cancer survivor. In lieu of flowers, we ask that donations be made in her honor to The Breast Cancer Research Foundation, 28 W. 44th St., Ste 609, New York, NY, 10036. Or, www.bcrf.org
