

Elizabeth Faye Day Lusk

September 2, 1961 - March 28, 2020

Elizabeth Faye Day Lusk, “Memaw”, 58, of Rossville, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Saturday, March 28, 2020. She was a lifelong resident of the North Georgia area and was of the Baptist faith. She was employed with the Diagnostic Center of Chattanooga as a Phlebotomist for more than 10 years and was also a member of the Gold Star Wives, Magnolia Chapter. She loved being outside, working in her yard and planting flowers. She was a loving and devoted sister, mother and grandmother that will be truly missed by all who knew her. She was preceded in death by her parents, Harold & Nancy Day and husband, Paul Ballard Lusk, Jr.

Survivors include her children, Paula Lusk, Paul & (Marchelle) Lusk, III and Pamela Lusk Rodgers; sisters & brothers-in-law, Kimberly Haynes, Cynthia & (Jim) Speace and Tia & (John) Cady; 4 grandchildren, Shae Smith, P.J. Smith, Maggie Lusk and Penny Smith; special friend, Henry Collins and numerous extended family & friends.

Services and burial will be private and there will be no visitation at the funeral home. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

“ Beth was a beautiful, kindhearted woman who exuded joy and love to all those around her. Though I only met her a few years ago, she will stay in my heart with lovely memories of all she did for others, especially Uncle Henry. May the Lord surround y'all with comfort and peace.
