“ In the late 1970's when Kimberly and I began dating, I met this wonderful lady. Way before I knew that God was going to bring Kimberly and I together as husband and wife, Mamaw Ellie treated me as her own grandson and she always called me her grandson. I lost both of my grandmothers at an early age so she has always felt like my grandmother. We have all enjoyed getting birthday and anniversary cards from her every year. Never before have I met such a lady of appreciation and grace. Even in the hospital, she would thank me for coming by to visit her. We could do the slightest thing for her and she always showed us great appreciation. She was the smartest lady in country ways that I have ever known. She, like Christ, loved everyone unconditionally and endlessly. If you met her once, she loved you and you felt it. Will she be missed? Oh Yes and greatly! But sometimes just missing someone is just temporary in our hearts. To me, she will never be forgotten and the pain of this loss lessened. I have heard her called Mamaw, Miss Ellie, and Ms. Pitts, but from everyone I have ever heard of that knows her, she is precious, special, wonderful, and a dear heart. She loved the Lord, Ocee, all of family, and she loved me. What a great reunion it will be when I see her again in Glory. May Our God wonderfully bless her memory in our minds and in our hearts, May He bless our family with comfort, peace, and mercy. She was, and always will be, my Mamaw. Thank you Father for the time I had with her.
