“ I thank God that Ellis' time and location on this earth coincided with mine and Mardy's. They watched many a ballgame together. Though fishing was his most favored thing to do he was a multifaceted man. He loved a good joke and all kinds of music. He had a kind heart sharing his time and resources with the sick, grieving, and others in need. He was a loving husband and father and absolutely loved being a grandfather. He has been special to our children and grandghildren as well. I have nevr met anyone who met Ellis that didn't like him and, given time, come to love him. He loved and lived well. We will all miss him and cherish his memory. God Bless and Keep You All

“ I had the privilege to spend many hours with Red, talking about fishing. We had a lot of laughs comparing stories and techniques that we have learned over the years. My thoughts and prayers to His wife and son and their families. Red was good friend. He will greatly be missed. I know they must be some great fishing in Heaven, Untill we talk again old buddy "CAST & WIND".
