*Though you were only here for a moment,
you left a forever in my heart.
I never got to hear your laugh,
or see your eyes light up with wonder—
but I imagine them often.
I carry you in quiet moments,
in soft dreams,
in the hush between heartbeats.
You were small,
but your presence was mighty.
You taught me that love doesn't need time to grow—
it just is.
And mine for you will never fade.
I wish I could have protected you,
held you longer,
known you more.
But I'll keep your memory safe,
like a lullaby I hum to myself
when the world feels heavy.
You were my sister.
You still are.
And always will be.*

“ My Precious Angel Baby, you brought so much joy to my life for the precious 6 months 3 weeks that God allowed you to be here with your mommy, daddy, nana, & pawpaw, n everyone else you touched. I will never forget you my sweetest granddaughter, the smiles on your face, n them serious eyes as you looked at me when I sang to you Jesus Lives Me, no matter how sick you were or medicated you were you would always try n open them tiny eyes n smile n try to sing with me, n I know you knew who I was, with the loving smile you gave me. My sweetest Angel Baby I will try n always sing to you n the boys every night, n I will tell you Cousins about your journey n how I sing to you n that beautiful face that lit up when you would here me sing, n I know you will be laughing at me cause I can't carry a tune in a bucket but you never stoped smiling n trying to sing, I will always love you in my heart till the day your Nana comes home to you n the family, Night sweet Angel Baby Love you forever to the Heavens.

“ I know I don't know you but I am sorry for your loss of a special little one. I too know how it feels to lose such a beautiful child at such a young age especially a newborn. I lost my second son Cyler back in 2013 to stillbirth and still to this day I hate seeing a precious baby taken from this world. I created Baby Land in remembrance of my son and all the babies taken too soon. I also went through Wilson's and offer you peace and hope that you stay strong and time does heal I promise but it takes a lot of time to heal as a mother. If you're interested Baby Land is located at Calvary Gardens and is a perfect place for all our babies to be put to rest so they can play away and keep each other company. I hope that this helps in some way but I also feel your pain and just wish it didn't happen and will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

Tiffany - September 10, 2017 at 12:56 AM

Thank you so much. Its so hard but I find peace in knowing that she is healthy and with the Lord.

“ Precious baby Emery, so many people were pulling for you to make it on this earth, and I know you were so very loved. I also know God only lent you to your Mommy and Daddy for a very short time, and he is never wrong, though we will never know why he needed you in his Heavenly home, but praise God you are safe in his arms now with no more pain. We will keep your family lifted in prayer, and if God allows it, send them a sign from time to time. Rest easy until you are reunited with your loved ones still here. <3
