“ My deepest condolences to Jean's family and loved ones. We first met in High School and became friends working together at Walmart. She was a warm, loving lady and will be missed.
May God comfort you as only He can. My love and prayers are with you 🙏🙏💕

“ Oh how I loved going to Jean and Warrens! John and Shawn let me hang out Roth then and play mortal combat even though of was their little cousin who didn't quite get the game. My cousin Jean would record Betty Boop for me to take home on VHS bc we didn't have cable at home. At my high school graduation she gave me a pearl necklace which I will proudly wear at her funeral. She introduced me to and let me play with her California raisin figures as Lind as I put them back before leaving. I loved spending time with her and warren and my cousins John and Shawn. I felt like I was their little sister. No one that met my cousin Jean felt like a staranger. I'll always hold dear to my head her love and dedication to her family! Meet you in heaven soon dear cousin!

“ My first memory of Mrs Gagnon, was at church. True Life church. She was the most spiritual lady that I've ever known. She set a wonderful example of what it would look like to have a relationship with the Lord. She truly knew him in a way that amazed me. Her love and determination truly inspired me. I am blessed to have gotten to know her. I am happy to know that she is with her Heavenly Father and is at peace.
