Eric and I more or less grew up together. He was very good friend one of my best I should say. He was really more like a brother. Eric was an Alabama fan and me an Auburn fan growing up. Him and I use to play football 1on1 in his front yard and pretend it was the Iron Bowl lol our football rivalry carried on after we became adults and during football season we would usually throw those Auburn and Alabama football jabs at each other all in good fun by the way. Eric will be truly missed. Luv ya brother until we meet again.
