“ One of the best memories I can remember with Eric was one high school summer we were camping at the farm and Dave and Revis came to pick us up to go school clothes shopping for Eric. We loaded up in the suburban and went to the mall. we must have spent 3 hours picking out the best school clothes to fit him and he was so excited to get home to show his mom how well he had done. But before we even left the mall he lost his shopping bags full of clothes coming home empty handed. He was so happy that Pam was going to be proud of him for getting clothes instead of blowing the money on mindless teenage things that he lost the clothes. To me it was funny at the time but he was more upset about letting his mom down than losing the clothes. He was like a brother to me and he will be missed by many. I send all of my love and prayers to the family and friends.

“ Eric was a very dear friend to me... So easy going, & that smile always made ya think everything would be okay... All those Tennant boys were like an extended part of our family growing up... In later years, I was particularly close to Eric. We shared a lot of good times together... Years passed by w/o seeing him, but I kept telling myself I'd get a chance to see him again. Life is too short & unpredictable to not take advantage of the now. It's easy to still feel young, like you'll have time to hang out again, but life is too precious to look @ it that way... In an instant it can all be gone. My thoughts & prayers are w/ the family. May peace & comfort find you all durring these difficult times... Oceans of Love, Kaki Hentz
