“ I feel very thankful & blessed to have known Mr. Camp. He was a pleasure to be with daily. He had a very loving spirit and I fell in love with Mr. & Mrs. Camp, along with their children. To be in Mr. Camp's company, for me, was to be in the presence of peace, kindness & love.

As The Apostle Paul said, Mr. Camp, You fought the good fight, you have finished your course, you have kept the faith, there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness.

Mr. Camp, it was truly an honor to have known you and taken care of you.

I was honored to meet Carthel awhile back. He was a very friendly man that loved the word of God. He was holding in his lap his Bible and saying scriptures that he knew. He wasn't able to read it but the word was in him and he spoke what was in his heart. I believe he was a true saint of God that shed his earthly house and entered into that glorious holy Place his eternal home which we all long for one day. Heaven. His work on Earth was done and he patiently waited for that journey home. His spiritual eyes were opened and he seen the gates opened and he entered in.
