“ My Condolences to the family...I didn't know Ethan very well but I remember him when I visited his Grandparents Chris & Doug Gerrells when I traveled from NJ to Georgia with a family member of his and he was just around 6yrs old when I first meet him and I can still picture him running around the house having himself a good time with his brother Jacob.He brought smiles to our faces...He was a happy child all the time.

He surely will be missed and never forgotten.He is free now no more worries.

Heaven has gain a beautiful angel...remember when it rain it is his tear drops from heaven looking down on you.

God Bless
