“ Sincere condolences from the Key Family. Enjoyed many good times camping, playing music with Gene. I pretty much started him playing guitar here in my shop. He took it and ran with it.. Short story,, I showed him a few chords and he came back 2 weeks later and blew me away. Such a good guy.. Fly High Brother.

“ Nathan I am so sorry for your loss. Your dad was such a great guy and I always enjoyed being around him. He sure did love his little Debbie cakes. The loss of a parent is so hard just know that you will see signs that he is okay and still around when you don't expect it. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Growing up as Nathan's best friend, I often found myself going to Rossville for the weekend with Nathan to hang out at his Dad's. While there were plenty of memories of Gene teaching us Dokken, ZZ Top, Skynyrd and other songs on the guitar, the most resounding was during my first trip from Cave Spring to Gene's house. After picking Nathan and I up, Gene kept telling me about The Hershey Factory and how you can smell the chocolate being made while you drive by.

Well, for those that don't know me, I'm a big boy and the thought of that smell had me pretty excited. As we drive on up 27 out of Trion, Gene tells me to get ready for the Chocolate Factory and that we're almost there. As we ride by, the stinch of human waste fills my nose and I come to find out that we did indeed pass the Chocolate Factory, the Waste Water Treatment Facility.

From now on, water treatment facilities will forever be known as Chocolate Factories to me.

Nathan, your dad was an honor to have known. The best part is, considering you have so many of his qualities, I'll always be able to call you Gene when applicable and help you remember what he may have said or done at that moment when it comes out of you.

Rock on and race on in heaven Gene.
