“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Evelyn Davis’s passing. I had the honor of working alongside Evelyn for many years, and I will always remember her with great respect and affection. As the director of financial aid and notary, Evelyn served our students with dedication and grace. She was admired and respected by so many—especially the students, who always knew they could count on her. Evelyn’s kindness extended far beyond her professional role. She often asked after my mother and my husband, showing genuine care and interest in my life. I’ll always treasure the conversations we shared and the warmth she brought into every interaction. Her generosity knew no bounds—whether it was offering a listening ear or sharing her delicious homemade zucchini bread and cherished recipes. Evelyn made a lasting impression on everyone who knew her, and her presence will be deeply missed. My heartfelt condolences go out to her family and loved ones during this time. With sympathy, “ Evelyn was always willing and wanting to help. Whether for a student or if you popped a button she would direct you what to do, so she could fix the problem. All the students were her kids and she would direct and help them. We will all miss Ms. Evie, but we know when the Lord calls you home well you go. With love, Bill & Tina Faour.
