“ I only learned of her death today. I am her Grandson Roger Hixon's wife, Amy Hixon. I am mother to two of her great grandchildren, Tyler and Austin Hixon. I had the pleasure of spending some time with her in 2013 when Roger and I worked together for a small handman/cleaning business. She was an absolute delight to be around and told wonderful stories of her younger years. I wish that Tyler and Austin could have gotten to know her a little better. However they adored her daughter, their grandmother Rosalyn Espy. While the marriage didn't work out, I am still proud to have been able to have spent time in her presence. She was truly a blessing. And I will definitely miss her. Just as much as I do Roslyn.

“ Gordon and Marjorie, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother and mother-in-law. Having lost my own mother and mother-in-law, I truly know how you feel. May God shed His Comforting Light upon you and the family, He enfold you in his wings and bring you peace. My condolences.
