“ I remember visiting her and Sharon and I would rock and talk, all around the kitchen. The rockers would walk as we rocked.

I so very much loved Sister! Her and my mom (Floyetta Green) so loved each other. I had sent cards back and forth with her for at time. My mother and I loved her dearly along with the family! She was quite a lady and even more an example of true Christian love! I love you sister! Hope you can catch up with my mom, dad and my husband that I just lost! Don't forget to wait for me at those pearly gates cause I will be there soon!

“ "Sister" was one of the first of the Women's Missionary Union Ladies to invite me to WMU at Center Grove. As a new Christian and a new member of the church, her encouragement was invaluable. She encouraged me in many things through the years and became one of my best friends. When we talked on the phone, we wouldn't be on long and she would say, "Well, I had better get off of here and get busy at the White House." I loved her and her sense of humor. I'll never forget her. I wish I hadn't taken for granted that she would just always be here on earth for me to talk to. Many prayers for this family and for our church family. She and Granddaddy will be greatly missed.

I've know Mrs. White all of my life, she was a special friend of our family. She always made you feel special. I hadn't seen her in a couple years and ran into her and Mr. White just a few months ago when they were visiting their son, told my husband I and to stop and talk with her before we left that day. That was the very last day that I had gotten to speak with her and now I'm so glad I did. She is a great example of a person of God! Love you Mrs. White.

“ She was the greatest teacher any child could have. She read stories that made you feel as if you were in the story. Always with a smile on her face and a kind word to say. A very precious lady that helped mold my life. I will miss you!

Mrs. White was a sub at fortune grammar when I attended there, but I have been helping her at Walmart the past few years she had never forgot me or my brother and sisters. She always let me know granddaddy was in the car he wasnt feeling like getting out. She loved granddaddy and her children more than anything in this world. We were a;ways looking for things her son would eat. She was a Blessing to all, so sorry for your loss. Grandmother defineately left a legacy.
