“ I'm happy to know that Frances shared her testimony with us for her faith in the Lord. Frances and her husband would drop by and share their testimony of how they loved the Lord with my husband and I. Before they would leave, the evening would end with Frances and Leonard (her cousin) talking about their child hood days of mischievousness that they told on each other. As I reminice I can still hear her laugh as she told the stories. She will be greatly missed.
