“ May the peace God gives sustain your family during this difficult time. Lean on one another as the days ahead become too hard to bear alone. Share your memories they will be a source of joy. Seeing the promises in God's word the bible will help you to gain strength and fortify your hearts, granting you comfort. (2 Thessalonians 2:16,17; jw.org)

“ Miss Frances was always kind to me. I will always remember her fantastic cooking and her homemaking. She kept her house as neat as a pin. And she was an excellent mother-in-law, always smelling of Estee Lauder. She will be missed.

“ Charles and I send our condolences to all of the family. We both knew Frances for a lot of years. She lived a good life and is now in a better place than being in a nursing home which I am sure she did not want to be in. Even though it may be hard to give her up, let her go in peace and try to remember all of the good times you've had with her during your lifetime.
