“ Lynn Brown was my lifelong dear friend. He was someone to look up to and admire. We met in the 9th Grade at Lakeview high school. I admired him as a good person the first time I met him. He was courageous and a good sport. We did all kinds of things together growing up. We ran around together. We fought in the Golden Gloves together. He was like a member of my family. He was my closest friend throughout most of my life. I talked to him on the phone a few weeks ago after he had come home from the hospital. They found that he had bleeding ulcers. He seemed in good spirits, as if there was nothing to worry about. This comes as a tremendous shock to me. I loved Lynn Brown. He was one of my dearest friends in life.

So sorry to hear about this loss. I remember Lynn as a very nice man. He is the brother of my precious Aunt Jane The Uncle of my sweet cousins Debbie, Judy, Ricky and Gaye. I have a lot of fond memories of the Brown family when I would spend the weekend with my cousins. May God comfort this family with their precious loss

I knew Lynn a long time. We kept in touch over sixty years. We relived all our adventures and even though he's no longer here I won't forget a single one. He was quite the character and we always had fun even if we were fightin'. Rest in peace my friend and follow that little dew drop....straight up to heaven and wait for us there.

Frank was awesome, amazing and the stories he could. I would sit on the edge of my seat, to hear what would come next. I could always call him, and he would come to help me with the house or whatever I might need. He remodeled my whole house, plus put flooring and a new roof on our house. I loved it when him & Sam would take a break. Because I knew it was story time. He was a wonderful man, and will be missed by me, tremendously..... love you Frank Brown, see you in Heaven.. ..Nyla Rose Gentry
