“ To my dear Aunt Mary & my sweet "cousins" Little Mary, Lloyd, Mitchell & Michael. I know I have lived far away for many years but I have so many cherished memories of you all & my Uncle Frank. He was always such a big man in my eyes. Not just because he seemed so tall to a short little girl, but because he was such a good, strong, Godly man. He had a way about him. He didn't have to say much, just had to look at you to get his point across. He had the best mustache I have ever seen! Also, he was a good friend to my Daddy, despite the fact that Daddy was a Tennessee fan. I pray for comfort for all of you. I know he will be missed, but a part of him will always be with you.
