“ I did not get to see Uncle Freddie as much as I would have liked to visit. I remember when we were little and coming down from Northern KY to visit he would always play games with us and he would bring me and my sisters candy. Mom didn't like us having so much candy, but that never stopped him. He even did that after I married and brought my husband down for visits. He did not have any children of his own, so he called us his far away kids. I love you Uncle Freddie,, RIP.
