“ Hello to the Family members of Rick.
Please accept my most sincere condolences.
Rick and I had become acquainted through another of his very longtime friends.
We really could communicate.
We both loved working in the garage or just tinkering with cars or creating new things using recyclables.
Rick was the kindest person I think I knew.
Everytime I came to visit, he would always try to have me sit down and eat. He just loved caring for people. I regret not ever having a chance to have met any one in his immediate family but I've spent many hours hearing him speak of his sisters and his Mom and Daddy.
I'm sorry for the lengthy message. Just so many wonderful things I'd love to share about my hours spent with Rick and how much our talks impacted my life. I'll have a hard time getting used to him being gone.
Thank you for your most genuine and unconditional love and friendship, Rick. You will ne missed greatly. Rest in Peace now... No more pain my friend. Love always and forever,
Your friend,
MichaelDavid Paul Phillips
