“ Gary was a student of mine at Chattanooga State Community College after his military service in Vietnam. I was happy to have him as my friend as well as student. He was so likeable and I hate that I did not maintain a relationship with him. I want to thank him for his service to his fellow service members and his service to the country. He seemed always interested in every ones needs. Gary will be sadly missed by me and those friends.

“ Gary was a friend of my nephew, Tommy. Gary would come to my parents house playing and to watch TV, we all thought the world of him, he was so sweet. I hadn't heard from him since he was about 15. It's a blessing to know he was saved, a child of God.

“ Gary and I grew up and attended school together. We lived in the Brainerd area. Gary was a good friend and person. I thank the Lord Gary has a family to love and care for. I'm so thankful he knew Jesus as his Savior and Lord. We lost contact back in the middle 60's. Now I know where he was.

I will see you in Heaven.
