Gary Lee Wimpy, 64 of Ringgold, passed away on Thursday, September 26, 2024. “ Known for he’s witty and sarcastic humor, Gary brought his own unique perspective into every situation. He was not timid, nor did he shy away from expressing how he truly felt. He wore his heart out on his sleeve. Gary was never short on humor as he went around planting sneaky pranks that sometimes downright frustrated everyone (LOL), like changing glove boxes or hiding remotes! But on the other side of that humor and sarcasm was a loving, devoted husband who faithfully took care of his wife who struggled with her health. He never complained. He tenderly tended to her every need without hesitation. He was also a loving grandfather of three beautiful girls.
Gary will be missed! He had a bright smile, a BIG heart and an unmatched sense of humor! One of my favorite memories of Gary is that he made me laugh and always greeted me with a smile. He had a unique way of making me feel valued and special. “Evie!!-you’re here!!”, he used to say to me when he would see me coming in to relieve him off shift—perhaps he was just happy to go home (as I am sure he was!). But even so...he took a moment to brighten my day before he left! I will miss him! REST IN PEACE GARY, with deep condolences, Eve Hayes, TSO at TSA “ Gary was wonderful for a laugh even at himself. I'd see him at work and ask how his day was "Wonderless" he would say. It made me laugh every time. He was so quick witted and he knew it, but it didn't make him mean, it just made him more lovable. He used it to make you laugh with him. His love for his family was always visible. He loved being a granddad. He was the perpetual kid at heart. Gary never grew up. And it was wonderful. Thank you Gary.
