“ Mr. George is one of the fondest memories I have of my childhood. He was like a grandfather to me as Gene was like an uncle. He would always tell me "shake a leg" and I literally would. This I will always remember and smile when I think of his laughter! We also share the same birthday and as each year passes I always think of him! I send my love and prayers to the family!!

“ It truly is amazing to me how our Wonderful Lord # Saviour Jesus christ , God our Heavenly Father uses men & women to touch the lives of so many people. I recall some 50 plus years ago, when Georgia and I starting our house keeping in the Garretts Chapel area. Bro George Barrett came by our house on several occasions and witnessed to me and encouraged me to give my heart & life to Jesus Christ and get my family in church. Thank God a little later, we did take Bro George Barrett's advice & encouragement, we started going to church , gave our lives to the Lord(even before our son Jimmy Sprayberry was born).A few yeras later on July 28, 1963 the Lord called me to preach His Precious Word. That has been over 50 YEARS Ago. The Lord only knows the fruit and Rewards that Bro George Barrett will receive from the Lord as a result of his ministry of encouragemant and Christian example. PRAISE THE LORD AND BLESS HIS HOLY NAME !
