“ Memories? So so many memories from 50 years back as a child i spent lots of summers and weekends with my grandparents and I so loved every minute of it. Then my children came along and boy they loved to ahop and made sure all the kids had plenty of anything they could get their hands on. Times at the house on Weiss lake were so so much fun we all hated to leave. Then along came great great grandbabies and for some reason they were the only ones that I think would ever sit in pawpaw lap and he would tell he loved them and that's something I rarely heard from him but i always new he did. Pawpaw you are loved and missed by so many but i know you are sitting by maw maw and you are home in your mansion without pain. I loce you.
