“ Dear Bill and family,

It brings great sadness to our hearts in the passing of your loved one, and our cherished friend. We will forever and fondly remember the times that we (Debbie and Steve) spent with you guys cutting up and laughing. We would often think of you two, but then something would happen that consumed our day and moved us away from a visit. She will be greatly missed by us and everyone else that had the pleasure of knowing her.

I would like to also add for the benefit of her obit, that she was an excellent Real Estate Broker for many years. It was during that time that we became great friends and gained memories that will never be forgotten.
