“ 10 years have past...it still hurts to recall all the funny,happy times we had together. You weren't just my only sibling,my brother...you were my best friend. I miss our random crazy texts back and forth we had all the time. I miss being little you and I would sit and watch sailor moon lol all day. You would teach me karate and were just the brightest light,it showed everywhere you went. 10 years later, I still can't wrap my head around the fact I will never see you or hear you laugh again. My kids won't know how much you meant to us,and how you would be the best uncle. I miss you,I love you. I'll see you in my dreams.

“ Jerry you light up a room when you come into it. There is always a smile on your face and on everyone's around you. You excel at everything you put your mind to and I know you are rocking a game system and having a ball while looking over us and smiling. You are and always will be in all of our hearts and we will make sure you are always in Abby's heart and memories and she will know how you loved her and that your life was for her and Shanna. I love you, miss you, and I am thankful to know that you are most assuredly in heaven and watching over us all.
