“ I am so glad that I was able to know Memaw. She was a great person, always loving and caring. She sent me a congratulations card in the mail when I graduated from UTK and I'm sorry that I never got a thank you card out for that, it really meant a lot to me. We will all miss her greatly. Love you Memaw

“ My beautiful grandma has gone to heaven. While I am sad that I will never see her again on this earth, I am comforted to know I will see her again in heaven. I'm so glad I got to spend time with her a few weeks ago, hold her hand, and tell her I love her. I will never forget you, Memaw. I will never forget how we shared a mutual love for Mayfield's ice cream, the best ice cream. I definitely inherited the Conner ice cream gene from you. I will never forget how you wanted to keep the bows and ribbons from all the Christmas presents because you thought they were too pretty to throw away. I will never forget how you accepted my husband as one of your own grandchildren. That meant the world to me. I will never forget how you always asked how my cat, Hippy, was doing...except you forgot his name and called him Tippy, which was too cute to correct. I will always remember how you loved to cross-stitch, and you were amazing at it. You had every color thread and could whip up a cross-stitched tablecloth in no time. I will always remember how you would try to read your books and crosswords with a magnifying lens, so I found you some large-print books and crosswords and you were so excited. You said you didn't even know they made big writing like that for books. I will always remember how whenever something about my high school was in the newspaper, you would cut out the article and mail it to me to inform me of happenings at my school. You were always thinking of others. Mother's Day is today, and I wasn't able to mail you a card or call you. My heart is broken, but I can only imagine the joy you are experiencing in heaven with granddaddy, my brother Brian, and Jesus. I rejoice to know you are not in pain anymore, and you are walking streets of gold. I will always remember your sense of humor, kindness, and love. I love you, Memaw!

“ Glenda was one of the nicest, kindest people I ever knew. She was a vey dear friend. I will never forget her. On Sundays after church we always went to Hardees for a little thickburger and apple pie. One time when I was sick, she went to Parkplace Resraurant and brought me chicken and dressing and her beef tips over rice. That's what we always got there on Wednesdays. We aleways went to the classes taught by our former pastor. I will miss her always.
