“ I met Greg in 1985 while staying for six months with his aunt's family Linda. He was such a sweet and caring person who cheered me up when being homesick. My deepest sympathy to his mother, sister and his family. Love, Gerti

“ Had the honor of playing baseball with Greg "Smiley" Ellis during my career when we were both playing for Coach Seabolt in Boynton. We made it to the final game in the World Series that summer, and Greg played a pivotal role in getting us there. He was a super athlete and he was my friend. I regret that we didn't stay in touch after our playing days were over. I was very fortunate and blessed to have known him and his family. Greg was one of the best to ever play, didn't matter which sport you were referring to. My heartfelt condolences go out to his Mother, Sister, and the rest of his family. Sincerely, Mark Stone

“ Greg coached me in football at Lenoir City. He was an absolute prince among men. He was one of my biggest fans and is a reminder how great coaches appreciate the hard workers along with the athletically gifted. He was just a very special human being. Condolences to his family, but a loss for humanity as well....

“ Greg Ellis was my weightlifting coach at SMMHS and always tried to tease me all of the time and he also took turns with William Bill Price to do weight lifting class and economics class and he was always funny to be around and he loved to joke with people like me.

Coach Ellis always had time for ALL the kids with ALL abilities, making Denver truly feel like just another kid on those frustrating awkward teenage days of middle and high school. He will truly be missed.

“ Coach Greg Ellis you were more than a coach or teacher.. you were a friend after highschool school. One of my memories of Coach was one day at football practice in the summer . Temperature was hot. Somebody said something to him and he flipped the water and Gatorade coolers over dump them out. He had a way of chewing you out and giving you a compliment at the same time... I wish I could hear you yell " do it again Owens or Tarvin . " Fly High Greg! "Roll Tide" Big Blue Wrecking Crew!!!! ❤️❤️□□□

I am so sad for Greg losing his battle. He was 8 yrs younger than me and I had to babysit him and Sherri growing up. I could tell no many good ole stories but I don't have enough space! Greg was my first cousin but we grew up like brother and sisters. Greg was the golden child in our family he was the only boy for 21 years until Neil was born. I love you Greg always will Prayers for Crystal and her family for taking care of him in his final days.

“ I'm having a really hard time believing Greg is no longer with us. For me, we spent two of the best years of my life together as baseball teammates and college roommates. He was like a brother to me (you too Clay). Whenever I remember the times we shared I always smile because we really had fun. I'll miss him, and am so sorry that his family is dealing with this loss. “ My condolences to Greg’s wife, kids, family, and friends. I only knew Greg for one yearish back in 1981-82 pitching together at BCC with his buddies Clay and the other Greg, Lannigan. I’ll never forget Greg Ellis and haven’t yet at 61 because we became such good friends so fast and for such a brief flash. Greg was as fair and honest of a man, stellar, I’m sure we’ll all miss him no matter if we knew him a day, year, or lifetime. RIP Bro.
