“ So very sorry! We were shocked by the news! We were happy to see Guido here in our house last november! We talked about earlier days, living in America and off course pigeons. With a lot of happines we still think back off the days that our son and his friend Bart could stay with you in Georgia on their trip through America. They were at last one week safe. We will never forget Guido and know that Guido will show you the way... Have courage and faith!
