“ My sweet Granny !! From the first day I met you I was your Grand daughter . You loved me and I you !! The bond we had was one of a kind ! You have been missed for years since your memories were robbed from you and us. I will forever miss you and your sweet kind hearted love you shared . You live on in name sake with my Ben and will live on in my sweet girls . I see so much of you in little Daisy ! My heart fills with joy when I think of you as I watch her . She is your mini me ! I am over whelmed with pure joy you are at rest with our heavenly father . I know you Loved Jesus more than any one ! Your love of Him and each prayer you said for us is being seen . We have lost so much but you have gained Heaven . Until I join you one sweet day I will teach my babies of all the love you taught us . I love you and will forever more !
