

Hal Shook

April 1, 1928 - July 7, 2013

Hal C. Shook, 85, of Cooper Heights, GA, passed away Sunday, July 7, 2013, with his devoted family by his side.

Hal was a family man and veteran of the United States Airforce. He left a lasting impression on those who knew him for having a strong work ethic. Hal was employed by Serodino Inc. for the past 23 years. He also had a sincere passion for his beloved wife of 54 years, Jo Shook. He was a member of New Prospect Baptist Church, Cooper Heights.

Hal was preceded in death by his parents, William and Katharina Shook; and a sister, Jane Park.

He is survived by his wife, Jo Shook; son, Mark Shook (Ona), daughter Jeanie Shook (Peter) Kasper of Cooper Heights. Additionally, he is survived by two grandchildren, Abigail and Ikaika. He is also survived by a sister, Marianne Thornberry, a brother, John Shook and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the doctors, nurses and staff at Parkridge Hospital for their love and compassion. Also, want to thank Serodino Inc. and his co-workers for their support.

Visitation will be held from 4 to 8 pm, Wednesday, July 10th at Wilson's Funeral Home, Ft. Oglethorpe, GA. A graveside service will be at 11:30 am on Thursday, July 11th at Chattanooga National Cemetery, with Rev. Steve Wells officiating.

The family respectfully requests that in lieu of flowers that donations be made to the American Red Cross. Arrangements by W.L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Home.

“ Dear Jo and family, we were deeply saddened to hear of Hal's passing. He was such a nice person to know. Always smiling and a positive attitude toward life. I know he loved his family more than anything. May God draw all of you up close to himself during this tragic loss.

Love and prayers,
Lyne and Kaye
