“ I am so sorry for your loss. We all look forward to the time, "In which all of those in the memoiral tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29)

“ Every moment when Harold was around was memorable. Out of the clear blue one day he asked me to go play golf with him, during work.

He asked me to paint the inside of a parts department but the wood was soaking up all the paint. It was going to cost a FORTUNE to paint it. So, being in charge, I bought light brown paint by the 5 gallon bucket because it was on sale, cheap. I saved $100s of dollars.

But when I got done, Harold thought it looked pink. Later, he told me that was the closest he'd ever gotten to firing someone, but didn't.

Once, during an inventory, he sent the new guy for food (for about 20 people).

He came back with everyone's.....but Harold's. Poor guy (the new guy)

Harold definitely makes my top 10 favorite people with the most memorable stories. I know I have many more I could tell.

My condolences to the family, the Lord has Harold now, praise the Lord.
