Meeting someone in person isn't often necessary to learn of there values, kindness and greatness. I was blessed to get to know Harold through the stories JP shared of him. Harold touched lives and did God's work even when he didn't know he was doing it. That speaks volume of the impact Harold blessings had. My condolences to the Jenkins family. May God bring peace in this difficult time.

“ Dear Anita and Curtis: We are so sorry to hear about Bro. Jenkins. We have missed him at church as well as your family. We have many fond memories of Brother and Sister Jenkins! They are now united and in the presence of our Lord and Savior! Please accept our heart felt condolences! We know and experience your pain as we just buried our precious grandson! Our prayers are with you and your family at this time! Larry and Teresa Dotson
