“ Harold was my next door neighbor when we were children. I lost contact while he was in the military but when he retired we reconnected. We spent many many days hunting, fishing and camping together! He was a great friend and we went through Tammy good times together, you will be greatly missed. My prayers are for his children and grand children! You have gone on to your earned reward, goodbye my friend

“ Harold was one of the first in Ringgold to make my boys feel welcomed! Then I got to meet him and saw exactly why my kids loved him! He even gave my Mallory little girl dresses that were Michele's as a baby! My love and prayers are with you all!
