“ Harold Waldron was a quiet man of few words but his actions spoke volumes in love for his God, his Wife, family and friends. He also loved his Church and church family and was very faithful to them. He has been a great example of Godliness and what a man of God should be. Ann and I loved him and love his family. They are in our prayers. We look forward to seeing Harold again in Heaven.

Harold was one of the kindest men I know. I grew up with the girls and he always treated me as one of his own. Always smiling ,and very patient with all the shenanigans we got into. God bless the family and comfort them through this sad journey. Rest in Heavenly peace Harold.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Mr. Waldron but I've had the pleasure of meeting and getting to know his daughters. I've heard them speak of their daddy and their love and concern for him when his health began failing. He has left a legacy in these 4 beautiful woman. Whenever they talk about family you can feel the bond between them and you know that comes from the love of a great mother and father who loved their children. I'm sorry I never got to meet him but so thankful for his beautiful daughters who are his living legacy and want to express my deepest condolences to them during this time I know their hearts are heavy and flooded with many memories - thinking of you all and keeping you in our prayers- Les and Sharon Eisenbarth

Harold was like a second dad to me! His patience was unreal with a houseful of girls.....he never complained. A true example of a father and husband. You will be missed! You have a special place in HEAVEN, I'm sure it's the very best! RIP Harold

“ Harold was one of our dearest friends. He worked with Steve in their younger years at East Ridge Sales and Service. I recall them both working on a very treacherous snowy day and the roads were covered with ice. He and Steve would drive the wrecker and pull cars out of ditches that day. (Lola and I were here with the children). They came in frozen about noon, pulled off their socks and warmed their feet over the floor heater. They would eat a bite and head out again. Yes we were always together through thick or thin, and no matter what we remained wonderful friends. Harold was the kindest man and was so patient. He loved us and was always a very giving person. I could go on but I know many more friends want their time to share. As my children said on facebook. "He will be missed by all of us but he must truly be smiling today as he has made the landing into Heaven. He truly loved his family. A wonderful Christian, who lived the walk with Christ!
