“ Oh Aunt Helen,

I have SO many memories of you and Uncle Shelby. I remember SO wanting to go to your house anytime that I could to play with Lee (who was then called Sam), Russell and Jenny. We will miss you!

Love,

“ Oh Aunt Helen, I was thinking the other day about how you would be so tickled to know all the folks in our household who had very much enjoyed the beautiful blanket you gave to me. You were always so wonderful to us and we loved you and will see you again!

Our prayers and thoughts go out to this wonderful family. I praise God for every remembrance of you.

“ My condolences to the Crumley family. God hates to see us lose our loved ones. And he promises to end death forever one day. "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all eyes...." -Isaiah 25:8
