“ This is one of the hardest things I have ever had to do , to give my dad up, but knowing you are pain free and you are with our Lord and my mom then it's not as bad as it could be. I will always be grateful to God for giving me and my brothers the greatest Dad ever, we will always love you, we will never stop missing you , and we will see you again. May you rest forever in the arms of the Angel's

“ Pappy,

I couldn't not have asked for a better grandfather. You always made sure we we're happy and laughing. You never know how much I needed you in my life. You will forever be singing and playing for the angels above. And of course we will miss you but we know that heaven needed you! Keep an eye on us as we continue through the battles and trials of life. I can't wait to teach your great grand babies about you and your love. I love you pappy! Kiss nana for me 🥰

“ I'm not really sure yet what a granddaughter is supposed to do without her grandparents. I've not gotten that far, just trying to stay strong for your great grandbabies. You were the best papaw I could ever ask for, and I'm so blessed to have had you a whole entire 20, almost 21 years. Words can't describe the pain I am feeling, but also the joy that you will never feel pain again. You were the last grandparent I had, and it feels like you took my heart with you. As I grew up, I wasn't able to come see you as much but it didn't stop my love for you. I'm so glad you had the chance to see both babies, because that's something mammaw and nana never had the chance to do. They loved you so much. You're going to be so very missed my dear. You probably didn't know, but the day before you went to the Lord I was holding your hands. After you went home, I sat with you and rubbed your hands and arms knowing you weren't suffering anymore. You lived a long life papaw. You just rest with Jesus now.
