“ Imogene and Hobert have been our neighbors for many years. Hobert loved his yard and his gardens. He and my father used to wage an intense war against the moles that tore up the yards!! Such a kind man.....I remember his coming to the hospital to sit with my mother and me when my father was in intensive care. The Hughes' deaths are losses for our community. My prayers are with Faye and her family.

“ For as long as I've lived here across Boynton Drive from the Hughes--28 years now--I've enjoyed watching Hobert out working in his yard, cultivating his lovely day lilies, mowing, weeding...sometimes hitting golf balls, often just puttering. He always had a friendly smile for me, a "Hey, Lady!" greeting. Sometimes we'd stand by our mailboxes and chat, and he'd tell me about his health. He went into great detail about his surgery, and I could tell he liked describing it. I sure will miss him. My condolences to his family, who have now lost both Hobert and his wife only three weeks apart. We share your sadness.
