“ *Ann, Grace & Billy I'm so sorry for your loss. I loved Aunt Inda. We always got so excited when you all came to visit us. We loved it! And remember when we visited you one Christmas & it snowed & how excited we were because we didn't see much snow living at the coast. You all are more like sisters & brother to me then cousins. I'm sorry I wasn't able to be there. You are in my thoughts & prayers. Love you,
Susan*

“ Joyce Ann, Grace, and Bill, It's bittersweet hearing that Mrs Inda passed from this life into the arms of God since it's hard to believe she will no longer be here on earth to hug or to touch or to talk with, but oh what a time of rejoicing she is having right now in Heaven as she has loved on Jesus and is reuniting with loved ones that were waiting for her arrival, What a joyful homecoming they are all having right now. So as the tears fall and they will, I pray that you are all comforted with knowing she is rejoicing in Heaven and no longer depending on anyone to help her with her needs. She has that glorified body with no pain or suffering, no ailments or weaknesses but is probably dancing the streets of gold with her loved ones. If we could just see her now, there would be so much rejoicing in us as well. Just know you are all in our thoughts and prayers and we love you so very much.
