

Irvin Clay Smith

January 2, 1937 - September 27, 2022

Irvin Clay Smith, 85, of Rossville, passed away on Tuesday, September 27, 2022. He was born and raised in Kentucky and has resided in the North Georgia and Chattanooga area since 1968. He attended Faith Baptist Church and served in the National Guard. He loved watching all sports and was an umpire in East Ridge for many years. Irvin also enjoyed recording music and sporting events for friends who were unable to watch them live. He is preceded in death by his mother, Beulah Smith; brother, Paul Stewart Smith, and daughter, Sharon Brooks. He is survived by his daughters, Karen (Rick) Pendergrass, Sandra (Mark) Gamble, Lora (David) Johnson; grandchildren, Sara, Lori, Mandy, Geoff, Eric, Dusty; great grandchildren, Alexis, Jaycob, Kaden, Tinley, Daynen, Bryleigh, Isaiah; great-great grandson, Coop; as well as several extended family and friends. The family will receive friends on Thursday from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the funeral home and on Friday from 11:00 a.m. until the time of the funeral. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, September 30, 2022 in the funeral home chapel with Dr. Rob Borders officiating. Interment will follow in the Tennessee ~ Georgia Memorial Park. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

Cemetery Details

Tennessee/Georgia Memorial Park

724 Hogan Rd.
Rossville, GA 30741
(706) 866-5533

Tribute Wall

CC

“ The first time that I directed the hymn, "How Great Thou Art," Clay told me that the first time he heard that song was at a Billy Graham crusade in Louisville, KY, and he heard George Beverly Shea sing it. We both teared up at the memory, and because of how much the hymn meant to us both!

Connie Cloud - September 29, 2022 at 10:29 PM

MG

“ Martha Gayle Gentry lit a candle in memory of Irvin Clay Smith

Martha Gayle Gentry - September 27, 2022 at 09:39 PM