“ I am so sad to learn that my friend Barbara passed away last year. We were child hood friends and lost touch when I moved to Arizona. I moved back to Georgia 12 years ago and I found her and had a great visit with her and her mother. We had planned to get together for lunch and never did. Her mother was a very kind woman. I spent many over nights with Barbara listening to music and watching Elvis movies. Her mother always made sure we had snacks and kept the boys from bothering us as best she could :) I wish I had know when Barbara passed , I would have came to her wake. I only heard the news of her mother yesterday. Great memories of girls growing up and figuring things out.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. It's been a very long time since we have seen each other. We used to be neighbors when I was a child and, The Herron's were very kind people. I always thought Mrs. Herron was a sweet and beautiful lady. We had fun playing with her kids.
