“ I will not ever forget spending an afternoon with my friend Teresa, and getting bit by a dog at her grandmother's house. Jack and Cora called my Mother and met us at the hospital. I endured twenty one shots where I was bitten, (above my top lip and below my nose.) I was terrified of dogs for many years afterwards. Jack was a wonderful Dad to his children, and friend AND their friends! Praying that our loving Father wraps His comforting arms around all family and friends during this separation time.
