“ Growing up over here in Westside, we new him as Eddie, way on back there his dad had some of the best ice cream off his truck you could get,
Eddie was my brother CJ's age but everybody in Westside new each other, Westside elementary School went through the 8th grade when we young,
You would have everyone from kindergarten thru high school on the same bus sometimes, bus's would drop at elementary schools then tote the high school kids on to school
Our community back then was a great place to grow up, Eddie was a good friend to everyone who knew him,
Over years you loose contact with people, usually though for some reason everybody who went to Westside Elementary School no matter the age group always seemed to be a family,
Eddie rest good my friend
