“ Bro. Jack was a dedicated man who loved his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Linda and I are blessed to have the Fee family as our friends. Sister Catherine, or as Bro. Jack would say his bride of many years took good care of him when he was not able to care for himself. I remember when he recommended me to a church many years ago and we ordained him a deacon. I still remember the many things this dear man and his wife did for our family over the years. He was a man who who stood for what was right. He was a man who believed in the bible and loved working in the church. He loved his Lord, wife, children and grandchildren . I considered this man to be among the best of my friends. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. Bro Jack is Heaven's gain and our loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Sis Catherine, and family. We love you guys! James and Linda Helton
